DESCRIPTION

This beautiful villa is located in Gradina Icoanei area and is also nominated on the Historical Monuments List.

The property was designed according to the classic house model circulating in the second half of the 19th century and the beginning of the 20th century, the representative mode for a patch of owners with a good fortune.

The buildings have one or two floors, with facades decorated in the manner of the end of the nineteenth century, dominating the eclectic style.

The facades contain delicate and processed architectural elements.

Among the first owners are a reputed surgeon, a former minister of Inter-War Health, a Surgical School creator in Iasi and Bucharest.
