DESCRIPTION

The imposing building built in Eclectic architectural style with numerous Neo-Romanian elements is located in a beautiful area of historical villas, between Calea Victoriei and Lascar Catargiu, suitable for both the ambassador residence and for representative offices.

Exceptional location and very good exposure favor the access to all the points of interest of the capital.

Property description:

The building was built at the request of Gheorghe D. Ionescu – Clejani, under the enterprise of Mihai Hartel and surprises by the rich decoration of the upper register, the frames joining at the top in a frieze that surrounds all the facades.

The braiding with floral motifs has the role of bringing together the entire architectural composition.
